

The fact that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election just WRONG. I would be just upset if the movie in question smeared President Bush.

Fairness is a hallmark of American democracy and patriotism. This is not fair. This is not patriotic. This is NOT American.

It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
